Latino Center of the Midlands Programs

Family and Community Well-Being

Empowering clients to live healthy, self-sufficient, and fulfilling lives through physical and mental wellness programs, strong healthcare partnerships, and advancing intergenerational well-being.

Healthy Communities

To create sustainable health programming that fosters awareness, educates and supports the health and wellness of our Latino and immigrant community.

Club de niños saludables, or Healthy Kids Club, focuses on preventing childhood obesity and promoting lifelong health in a fun and engaging way through nutrition education and physical activity. Activities include Zumba, yoga, healthy cooking demonstrations, and other workshops and activities.

Additional Health and Wellness Strategies

Healthy Communities promotes well-being through education, health services, and community events in partnership with local healthcare organizations. Programming includes health screenings, vaccine clinics, CPR and First Aid training, Youth Mental Health First Aid, Bienvenido, free mammograms, and the annual Women's Health Conference.

Cultivate Wellness

Providing clients with the skills, training, and resources to grow fresh produce, fostering food security, self-sufficiency, healthy living, and stronger community bonds through home gardening.

Cultivate Wellness, is a free at-home gardening and health initiative designed to empower clients with the knowledge, skills, and resources to grow their own fresh, culturally appropriate produce. The program improves access to affordable, healthy food using gardening as a catalyst to meet broader health and social needs in the Omaha community.

Through hands-on training and weekly home visits, staff support low-income households in building and sustaining home gardens, providing health education, referrals to essential services, and guidance that promotes healthier lifestyles, stronger community bonds, and long-term resilience.

Family and Community Well-Being

Health and Innovation Garden

Managed by the Cultivate Wellness program, the LCM Health and Innovation garden is a vibrant hub where hands-on learning, sustainable agriculture, and community connection come together.

Siembra Salud Internship Program

Siembra Salud interns work alongside the Latino Center's Cultivate Wellness program delivering health education and hands-on gardening experiences, and are introduced to the multiple facets of the Public Health field. Qualified students may also have the opportunity to become Certified Nursing Assistants (CNA).

Latino Center of the Midlands Programs

Latino Center of the Midlands Programs

Pathways to Success

Talking Círculos

Empowering youth through culturally-based leadership models in which culture is used as a tool for positive identity formation, goal setting, and decision-making.

Leadership Groups

Ollin and Xochikalli are youth leadership programs for young men and young women ages 14-19, grounded in the Joven Noble curriculum. Offered at the Latino Center of the Midlands and participating Pathways to Success schools, these programs guide participants through meaningful rites of passage—helping them build identity, make healthy choices, and develop the tools to prevent substance misuse, teen pregnancy, relationship violence, and school failure.

Referrals

To refer a youth to the Talking Círculos Program please complete the referral form on our website. For more information and to download the referral form visit <https://www.latinocenter.org/what-we-do/pathways-to-success/>

Pathways to Success

Parental Engagement

Providing holistic services to students and families through a two-generational approach that empowers students and their families to build positive, healthy relationships.

Programming includes

- Constant Communication with Parents
- Family Nights
